Animal Assisted Activities Program in Welfare Homes

A Program for Animals helping people & People helping animals.

In this program, a mutually beneficial bond is established between animals and people. Sometimes, animals are the ones to inspire the most wonderful of Human traits – COMPASSION

AAA engages a positive approach to reshape animals behavior until the animals are ready to be adopted to approved homes in the community.

The participation of children from HOMES in this program enhances the development in behavior management, self-esteem and persistence.

Objectives of AAA Program

- To generate awareness and responsibility in Malaysians on animal welfare as part of the policy towards a caring Malaysian Society.
- To develop strategies and programs to promote animal welfare.
- To promote understanding and practices of animals welfare as part of Malaysian culture.
- To establish linkages with Welfare homes, Veterinarians and other organizations in matters associated with animal welfare.
- To enhance Animal / Human bond for better interaction between animal and human.
- To provide entertainment and enhance socialization for healthy lifestyles.

Objectives of AAA Program in welfare homes.

- To educate children or residents in welfare homes with pets on how to care for them.
- To provide the children / residents with a skill in animal healthcare
- To use these pets as therapy for depression and stress related issues in these homes.

In order to achieve the following goals:

- Help orphans / underprivileged children understand and experience the importance of being a responsible caretaker of their pets
- Help them to feel confident and comfortable around animals
- To ensure the pets are cared for in a proper manner.

Foundation welcomes all donations in kind or cash and volunteers to participate in all its activities.
